Invitation to All.

Yes, the promise is to all who beleve. Ours is a blessed privilege in being members of the Church. We should appreciate it very highly.

Whether Protestant or Catholic, or Christians. In our sorrows and afflic-tions we have one upon whom we Ann E. Rapuzzi has been appointed a clerk in the Bureau of Standards.

The Herald's Sunday sermon was written by the Rev. William A. Wade, pastor of St. Mark's Lutheran Church of this city.

Grace, mercy and peace be unto you from God the Father and Our Lord Jesus Christ, Amen.

THE GLORY OF THE CHURCH. Text, Jeremiah 38:9—"And it shall be to me a name of joy, a praise and an honor before all the nations of the

Is it not comforting to turn away from the dreadful things which we are hearing and seeing and reading about, and listen to the message of the church which brings comfort, sympathy, love, mercy, peace, joy and salvation? The Chiristian ministry has been ordained for the preaching of the gospel of Jesus Christ, and that alone, and the divine purpose of the church in the world is to save sinful

Our text is a striking one. Israei is in bondage. The prophet Jeremiah is in prison because of his prophesying is in prison because of his prophesying against Israel. God is speaking through His prophet to the people, and His message is beautiful and comforting. What He here promises the Jews finds its fulfilment, not in the Jews alone nor at all, till they submit the Christian influence.

Sees Israel Restored. Looking down through the ages, He sees Israel restored, the Temple rebuilded and worship resumed, and He speaks through His servant in the words of the text. Yes, He sees more than that. In His great vision He sees the coming of Jesus Christ, His only begotten Son, the true Branch of Righteousness, and He then says in the words of the prophet, "and it," Israel, yes, the church of the Living "shall be to me a name of joy,

Christ, "shall be to me a name of joy, a praise and an honor before all the nations of the earth."

The text suggests the theme of the glory of the church, and may we add, that this is the greatest thought in the mind and heart of Almighty God. We can conceive of nothing higher and more noble than the glory of the church. The church is to God a name of joy, and it is a praise and an honor of God, before all the nations of the earth. We admire a beautiful picture for its real value, and at the same time it reflects the skill and power of the artist. So the church in the world must reflect the honor of God.

Origin of the Church.

Let us in the first place, therefore, notice the origin of the church. We do not find the Christian Church in the Old Testament. God was specific in telling Moses how he should build the jabernacle and arrange all parts and places, and out of this grew the Temple with its splendid and glorious appearance. Later we have the synagogue, and God met with and blessed His people here. But still we have no church. Finally in the fullness of time Christ came in all the glory of God to bring light and life and joy. For some years He walked among men and taught them and healed them and blessed them, and declared Himself to be the Savior of the world. He called unto Him twelve apostles and taught them, but still there was no church. He are sent the disciples out to preach and teach, but there was no church. He went to Jerusalem and was cruelly treated, betrayed and denied. At last He suffered death upon the cross at the hands of those whom He loved and for whom He came. He was buried, and after three days He arose. He for whom He came. He was buried, and after three days He arose. He ascended to His Father, and still there was no church.

Time Was Unique.

Time Was Ualque.

The time came unique in the history of the race. On the day of Pentecost the Holy Spirit came upon those believing disciples, and Peter preached that memorable sermon, and three thousand souls were baptized and received the gift of the Holy Ghost. On that day the church was organized and born. It was not planned by men, but it was the divine plan of God Himself. It is not strange that it endures always. And what shall we say, in the second place, about the membership of the church? There are those who would have us believe that only those who subscribe to the doctrines and traditions of one particular the church are members of the Church of Christ. There have been those so narrow as to say that we must belong to one certain denomination. so narrow as to say that we must been true to your Church? God will belong to one certain denomination hold us all responsible for the way in in order to be enrolled in the which we live. The promise is not church. But this is narrow and given outside of the Church, false. We learn from the Word of "Crowns and thrones may perish." ody of Christian believers, regard-
